STATINTL

1. [] Spoke with Robert Hull, Department of State, regarding their retirement legislative proposals for the 92nd Congress. State is preparing an omnibus bill to catch up to the major Civil Service improvements not yet obtained for foreign service (principally in the area of survivor annuities). They are also proposing some changes in overseas allowances [] has been advised). With respect to the retirement funding, Hull said they would again recommend the merger of their fund with Civil Service.

2. [] In response to her earlier call explained to Carolyn Judy, in the office of Representative John Buchanan (R., Ala.), that we have no tour of Agency facilities for a visiting college student constituent but that if employment possibilities prompted this interest, we would be happy to set up an interview with one of our Personnel representatives. She was appreciative of this consideration and said that she would check with the individual who is a one-month intern in Mr. Buchanan's office.

3. [] After checking with Messrs. [] and Parrott, returned a call to Mr. Black, in the office of Representative Lucien N. Nedzi (D., Mich.), who wanted information on the title, authors and date of a report prepared for President Kennedy in 1962 or 1963 on the intelligence community by Clark Clifford and others. Black could not shed any further light on the subject involved and said he would call J. Patrick Coyne of the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board to determine if the report was issued during Clifford's Chairmanship.

- 25X1 25X1A 25X1A 5. [] [] WH Division, called to say that during the Directors recent visit to Miami [] told him that some of his Secret Service and FBI friends had mentioned recent liberalizations to their retirement benefits. The Director expressed interest in this and asked [] to relay a message to have Legislative Counsel look into this. We will prepare a paper for the Director on the subject.
- 25X1 25X1A 25X1A 6. [] [] Director of Special Projects, called to advise that NRO had made arrangements for Messrs. Preston and Peter Murphy, House Appropriations Committee staff, to be briefed on [] during their current visit to the west coast and have asked Agency representatives to participate in the briefing. [] was merely letting us know about this. He also mentioned that Hineman Fine, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, would be taking a general tour of [] facilities, but there were no plans to expose him to [] 25X1A
- 25X1 25X1A 25X1A 7. [] Hand-carried to George Murphy, on the staff of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, an unclassified list of recent [] espionage cases. This was prepared in response to an earlier request from Murphy.
- 25X1 25X6 25X1A 25X1A 8. [] In response to his request hand-carried to Richard Perle, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations staff, unclassified statements prepared by [] on Soviet and Chinese Communist activities in the Middle East. I also left with Richard Perle a copy of "A Selected Bibliography of Soviet Publications Concerning the Intelligence and Security Service" prepared by CI Staff which I had talked about with him earlier. Perle said he had mentioned this to Senator Jackson who expressed considerable interest in publication of the document and asked that we not make it available to the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee until the Senator could decide whether they wished to publish the material.

9. [] Mrs. Jo Ann Allen, in the Austin office of Senator John G. Tower (R., Texas), called to find out the status of the application of [] a friend of the Senators who had applied for a position with the Agency. After checking with the Office of Personnel I advised Mrs. Allen that our Director of Personnel had written to [] on 23 December 1970 advising him we had no immediate opening for him. I added that we were keeping [] case in mind and would contact him if an opening should develop. This seemed to satisfy Mrs. Allen and she thanked me for the information.

10. [] Bill Cresswell, Administrative Assistant to Senator John C. Stennis (D., Miss.), called with further reference to the personnel case he had contacted us about before the Christmas holidays. He said the lady in question has had second thoughts about her offer to Mr. Wattles to retire at the expiration of six months. Cresswell asked that we not do anything to prejudice her case until we could come up and talk over the case with him. I told Cresswell we would be by to see him in several days.
